PA NEW OBSERVES

Pa New noted a motor cop was busy on Highland avenue Saturday, checking speeding. More attention than ever will have to be devoted to Highland avenue this summer, due to the fact that all Wilmington road traffic is now routed over this thoroughfare.

New Castle drivers can aid the traffic situation on Highland avenue
during the time that it is being used for detouring by taking advantage of Delaware avenue and Mercer street in coming downtown, or going north from downtown.

And just by the way, it seems that a large number of auto drivers do not believe in signs. Many refused to detour at Moody avenue and went on out Wilmington road, only to find that the street is entirely blocked and they had to return and make the detour. The signs mean exactly what they say.

Pa New noted several immigrant women who had just arrived in New Castle Saturday night still attired in their native country garb. It is said that immigrants are seen nowadays, although some years ago they were a common sight.

New Castle adds another important number to her convention calendar for this year in the way of a bays' gathering which will occur here in November. This meeting of boys, it is said, is the largest of its kind in the state.

Saturday afternoon the various county schools made whoopee in the form of a track meet. It was a clean meet with little argument, and a boost for the county in the way of clean sports.

Summer is here, so to say, for on Saturday evening Pa New carried a number of families who had carried their rockers out on the front porch and were enjoying the warmth of the evening from such a location.

It seems to Pa New that the Valmoo road detour is going to make travelling sort of uncertain for the

BERLIN, May 13.—A second opera-

Mrs. Gene Tunney, multi-millionaire heiress bride of the retired world's heavyweight boxing champion, according to Dr. Fritz Meyer, well known German surgeon, who is back in Berlin today after assisting in the first operation, performed on a rough table in the kitchen of the Tunney's villa on Briem Island, in the Italian Adriatic.

Mrs. Tunney underwent the first operation for the removal of an ulcer dangerously close to the appendix on April 28. News of the occurrence did not become known until exclusively revealed by International News Service on Friday last.

Needs Another Operation
Dr. Fritz Meyer, who acted as diagnosist and assistant in the first operation, said today that Mrs. Tunney was now entirely out of danger but that she would have to undergo still another operation before the trouble could be entirely cleared up.
"There is no possibility, however,"
he told International News Service, of the second operation being performed before the next six months.

RAIN SUNDAY WAS BAD FOR MOTORISTS

(International News Service)
Eight persons were killed and nearly two score injured as the result of week-end auto accidents throughout Pennsylvania, the International News Service survey revealed today.
The western part of the state suffered the heaviest death toll with five persons killed in auto accidents. In Pittsburgh, one woman was killed and 12 persons, including three children, were injured.

At Waynesburg, one death and two

(International News Service)
DES MOINES, Ia., May 13.—Des Moines University's students today planned to follow their "egg and rock" riot with an injunction suit which promises to provoke a fundamental-modernist controversy rivaling the Dayton, Tenn., "monkey trial".
They were determined to go to court, spokesmen said, if when they appeared at the university at the regular opening hour the classroom doors were not thrown open to them.
Meanwhile Dr. T. T. Shields, chairman of the institution's board of trustees and leading fundamentalist warrior in the Baptist church, who with other board members fled Des Moines under police escort, arrived in Toronto, Ont., proclaiming the riot
"nothing but a modernist conspiracy."
Students said they contemplated spiriting Miss Edith Rebmam, his secretary, over the border into her native Canada today unless she voluntarily quitted the university and the United States.

A wrecked business office, with furniture demolished, records strewn

Captain Smith Testing Plane; Dies In Crash

Mishap Occurs At Flying
Field At Lowell, Mass.,
Late Saturday

SPENT SEVERAL MONTHS IN CITY

Acted As Pilot For Robert Love While In New Castle

Captain Ronald Smith, World War aviator, survivor of many exciting experiences during that war and terribly injured in one crash of the war, only to recover and become a widely known pilot in the testing of airplanes for commercial purposes, died late Saturday afternoon in the crash of a plane which he was testing out at Lowell, Mass., for the Moth Aircraft Corporation.

Word was received over the wire service of The News shortly before 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon from Lowell, Mass., which stated briefly that Captain Smith had been killed in the crash of a plane at that place.

Love Gets Message.
A short time later a personal telegram was received by Robert C. Love of Lincoln avenue, with whom Smith had been associated for some time in the operation of the former's English plane, from the Moth Aircraft Corporation, telling of the death of Captain Smith in more detail.

According to the message received by Mr. Love Captain Smith was engaged in testing out new ships of the Moth Aircraft Corporation at Lowell, Mass.
His wife was at Lowell when the accident occurred.
His death resulted Saturday afternoon, when he went into a tail spin while up in a new ship at too low an altitude and he apparently had no op-

Senate Plans To Enact Farm Bill Opposing Hoover

Senate Continues To Give President Hoover Opposition In Farm Relief Bill

HOUSE MUST NOW
UPHOLD PRESTIGE

Debut Plan Will Prove
"White Elephant"
Throughout Special Session

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, May 13.—The mooted Senate of the Hoover Congress prepared today to enact a farm relief bill over Presidential opposition.

The Senate having adopted the debenture plan in the fact of the administration's heaviest artillery, the Hoover leaders were willing to accept the result and "pass the buck" to the House to uphold the President's prestige by eliminating the bounty plan.
Unlike the Senate, where a Democratic-insurgent coalition rides in command, the Republican organization has control of the House and can command a majority at any time to carry out the President's wishes.

"White Elephant"
The debenture plan, however, will prove a "white elephant" throughout the special session. If it is eliminated from the farm bill, as seems almost certain, the Democratic-insurgent coalition will seek to attach it to the tariff bill. This will mean a resumption of the debenture fight, another rebuff for the President and a fight between the two branches of Congress before a final decision is reached. The Senate undoubtedly

Girl Is Hurlled Into Creek, Five Men In Custody

Five Arrested For Throwing Of Girl Into Creek, Following
Drinking Party

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 13.—Five men were held here today by police in connection with the alleged slugging of a girl said to have been thrown into a creek near St. George cemetery, East Allegheny yesterday.

The girl, Clara Kohren, 24, was resued by Peter Scheiff, superintendent of the cemetery, who heard her screams. Henry Reible, 25, one of the men held, told police he and the girl had been visiting friends and that as they were walking home later both of them had fallen into the creek.
Scheiff told officers that a party of five men had been drinking in a nearby house during the afternoon and that shortly after he saw three of them leave he heard the girl screaming and went to her rescue.

Graf Zeppelin To Start Wednesday On Ocean Flight

Young Stowaway Is Quickly Dispatched After Discovery By Crew

FEMALE GORILLA
TO MAKE CROSSING

Gigantic Airship Made Ready
For Second Trip To American Shores

(International News Service)
FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany,
May 13.—A young stowaway, who had hoped to be a "passenger" on the Graf Zeppelin on its fourthcoming trip to the United States, was discovered in the crew's quarters today. He was ordered to "make himself scarce," and Dr. Hugo Eckener, head of the Zeppelin works, declared that any further stowaways found on the ship
would be prosecuted.

When the giantess departs for Lakehurst, N. J., on Wednesday morning she will carry 59 persons, including passengers and crew.
There will be no women among the passengers.

A female gorilla named "Missi," consigned to the Chicago Zoo, will be carried on the airship. To "Missi" will fall the honor of being the first gorilla ever to take a ride on an airship. She seemed more interested in her food rations today than anything else.

Take Southern Trip.
Dr. Eckener announced that he will probably avoid the short northern route over England, on account of bad weather. He probably will choose the southern route either over Bordeaux, the Azores and Bermuda, or above Gibraltar, Madeira and Bermuda. It is even possible that Dr.
Eckener may take a more southerly course although the distance would be twice that of the northern route.
"We know nothing about any plans to sell the Graf Zeppelin to America," Captain Lehmann, first officer of the Graf, told International News Service.

Captain Lehmann denied any intention of landing in England on the return trip of the dirigible to America and the Orient. He explained that British permission for a landing had been requested merely as a formality in case it was necessary for the airship to make a landing in that region.

John DeThomas, entrant of the Mahoning junior high school, won the first city championship of New Cas-

city-wide finals Saturday afternoon at Ben Franklin field.

well as receiving the honor due him for the exceptional marble shooting ability he displayed, DeThomas will get the handsome silver cup and a watch that Jack Gensel, officers Manuel Kakos of Lincoln-Garfield was runner-up in the finals.

At the close of the opening eliminations Perry Reher, George Washington representative, met DeThomas, but the latter took the match after Reher had copped the second game.
Kakos defeated his opponent, Fulton Cook of the West Side, by taking the first two games of their match.

Final Contests
It then remained for DeThomas and Kakos to battle it out. A portion of the crowd which had gathered to witness the track and field meet was waiting for the green light to make a left hand turn onto South Mill street, when a car bearing Penn-

rode with his head out of a window, the glass of which had previously been shattered, Sol Polite, 34, negro of Police's regular view was severed

Youngstown, attempted to light a cigarette. Three others riding in the car were uninjured.

Up at The Castleton things are being turned about prior to the remodeling of the front, where a new store is to be situated. The motor club headquarters are going over to the left side of the Falls street entrance.

That section of roadway which forms an extension of Highland avenue, now used as a detour for the New Castle-New Wilmington road travel, certainly got its share of travel yesterday. Several motorists, while passing others, went too far to the way. Pa Newc observed a car in the evening that was in deeper than the axle. This detour should be fixed at once.

Precipitation for the month of May is now almost an inch greater than the average for the month. Weather Observer B. F. Johnson reports. The normal rainfall during May amounts to 3.3 inches. Already, 4.18 inches has fallen, nine-tenths of an inch being recorded over the week-end.

Rural avenue is blocked to traffic at the present time, because of the work in progress on the Boyles avenue bridge walls.

United States as soon as she has recovered sufficiently to be able to travel.

The surgeon said that it was probable the second operation would be performed by Dr. A. W. Meyer, who also performed the operation on Billoni Island. The latter physician will be in the United States for the Surgeon's Congress, and will attend the boxer's bride as soon as she is able to undergo the second operation.

Dr. Fritz Meyer, in an exclusive interview with International News Service here, described how the helpless bride of the ex-champion was hurriedly brought from the isolated island, and hurriedly operated on against the terrific obstacles of meagre facilities.

Tunney Nervous

"It was a matter of life and death," Dr. Meyer declared. "I diagnosed the case as ulcer trouble. And we decided that an immediate operation was necessary. Surgical instruments were hurriedly brought from Fols Harbor on the Italian mainland, and we performed the operation on a table in the kitchen."

"We could not remove the appendix at the time because of the prevailing circumstances."

The doctor said that Mrs. Tunney was extremely brave throughout the ordeal, and that Tunney himself was very nervous. He also revealed that George Bernard Shaw, the famous British playwright and author who also is vacationing in Bristol, was in the house at the time the operation was performed.

planes several of which were captured from air-liquor smugglers."

Lowman said that the planes have proven highly effective along the border country in studying the activities of smugglers and spotting their movements. Through the use of radio the planes keep in touch with their ground patrols. Planes also may be used over difficult terrain in the interior of the country to locate moonshiners.

Besides the commercial rum smugglers, who transferred their operations to the Canadian border, when the coast guard placed a heavy patrol along the eastern coast the border agents will be faced with the heaviest auto tourist season in history.

In past years tourists have been leniently dealt with by customs inspectors, a nominal fine of $5 a bottle having been assessed. Commercial smugglers faced heavy fines and confiscation of their cars.

Tourists Face Jones Act

This year, however, the Jones Law which fixes a maximum $10,000 fine and five years in prison for illegal importation of intoxicants, may be used against tourists who are caught in the attempt to smuggle liquor.

Some districts disagree with the justice department that the Jones Law should be used in only a certain class of major cases involving sale, manufacture, transportation and importation. These U. S. attorneys are expected to seek prosecution of tourist liquor smugglers under the drastic "five and ten" law.

will yield to the House on the farm bill, but threats have been indicating the coalition will not yield on the tariff bill.

With the farm relief measure enacted, administration leaders will call up the reappointment and 1930 census bill in the Senate. This bill authorizes a census next year and provides for reappointment of the House on the basis of the new survey of population. After that the Senate will stage a battle over the right of Andrew W. Mellon serving as secretary of the treasury while owning a fortune in corporation securities. A majority report of the Senate judiciary committee exonerated Mellon, but a minority report declared him holding office in violation of law. An effort will be made to have the Senate approve the minority report.

The farm bill meanwhile was the immediate problem of the administration. Rumors that the House would refuse to accept the bill and eliminate the debenture or send it to conference and over the House conference to eliminate it. In either event the President would win.

"And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness." Where is this passage found in the Bible?

STAR LORE

SOLAR SYSTEM'S LOCATION IN THE GALAXY

By Arthur Dev. Carpenter

Harlow Shapley, by means of a new method of determining star distances known as the photometric, as in contrast with the trigonometric, was thus enabled to determine that the Solar system was not at the center of the war-shed galaxy, but rather toward the outer environs of it, and that toward the north. The sparsity of stars in the north is not an accident. It is due to the fact that the Solar system's location is well toward the northern border of the galaxy, while the south, along the line of the galactic belt, is densely crowded with stars. DES MOINES UNIVERSITY STIRRED BY OUTBREAK

American flag before the administration building. The demonstration followed.

Originally the fight arose over Dr. Shields' fundamentalist doctrines, in which he has been upheld by the board. Feeling was accentuated by the fact that Dr. Shields and Miss Rehnman are British subjects. They are president and secretary, respectively, of the Baptist Bible Union of North America, and as such have been in more or less contention with other wings of the Baptist church, which controls the university.

Leaders in the student agitation against the board of trustees are Miss Rehnman and E. D. Gibson, South Point, O., and Keith Kerkman of Des Moines.

Following adoption of resolutions by the board exonerating Dr. Shields and Miss Rehnman, President John S. Wayman and the faculty of 40 were dismissed by order of Dr. Shields.

Ordered to Resume

DES MOINES, May 13.—The state of Iowa today demanded that Des Moines university closed following riots in a modernist-fundamentalist fight, reopen its doors.

A temporary injunction restraining Dr. John S. Wayman, president, from carrying out the mandate of Dr. T. T. Shields, chairman of the board of trustees, in keeping the institution closed indefinitely was issued by Judge Francis S. Shankland in district court.

A court attaché left immediately to serve the writ.

SENATE PLANS TO ENACT FARM BILL
OPPOSING HOOVER

will yield to the House on the farm bill, but threats have been indicating the coalition will not yield on the tariff bill.

With the farm relief measure enacted, administration leaders will call up the reappointment and 1930 census bill in the Senate. This bill authorizes a census next year and provides for reappointment of the House on the basis of the new survey of population. After that the Senate will stage a battle over the right of Andrew W. Mellon serving as secretary of the treasury while owning a fortune in corporation securities. A majority report of the Senate judiciary committee exonerated Mellon, but a minority report declared him holding office in violation of law. An effort will be made to have the Senate approve the minority report.

The farm bill meanwhile was the immediate problem of the administration. Rumors that the House would refuse to accept the bill and eliminate the debenture or send it to conference and over the House conference to eliminate it. In either event the President would win.

Teacher's Contract Bill Is Approved

Governor Fisher Signs Measure Concerning Contracts For Teachers

Word has been received from Harrisburg, Pa., that Governor John S. Fisher has signed the "Teachers' Continuing Contract Bill." This is the bill that provides for the carrying over each year of the teaching personnel without signing a new contract.

The new bill is not a tenure bill but is in the nature of a compromise with the teachers of a tenure proposal. Under the provisions of the Continuing Contract Bill a teacher signs but one contract, that when she enters the service.

If the teacher plans to leave the service at the end of the school year, she must give notice to the school board, and if the board decides to replace her, it also must give the teacher notice.

The continuing contract plan has been in effect in New Castle for a year so that the new bill will not change the present system.

Find Liquor Cache Under Hen's Nest

If there is a new place to hide liquor in Lawrence county, the gentlemen who purvey whoopee drops will find it. George Green of Chelton, Yellow Springs, County Detective, Fleming, something new in the way of liquor caches over the week end.

With some other officers the county detective paid a visit to Green's place but apparently there was no liquor on the premises. Out in the chicken house was a setting of eggs.

The hen that was supposed to be working was out getting a drink or something and just to overlook no bet's Fleming looked under the nest. There it was, clear enough to the eggs to be ready for an egg nog, and Mr. Green was arrested on a charge of possessing liquor. He could not furnish bail before Squire Glover and is now in the county jail pending the June term of court.

LYNN'S WARNING MEETS SANCTION

Council Instructs That Fire Box Be Put In Margaret Henry Home

Fire Chief Lynn today pointed out to council gathered in city hall that the Margaret Henry home has no fire alarm box and councilmen voted unanimously to have a box installed immediately.

The fire chief said that it would be necessary for officials there to depend on a telephone or a neighboring telephone. He said this might result in delay.

Council did not delay on this subject and Council Burns' motion to have a fire alarm box placed in the Margaret Henry home where there are scores of children met with unanimous action.

Fire Chief Lynn also told council that fire hydrants were needed in Englewood avenue where the New Castle Water company is to construct a 1350 foot water line. Two fire plugs will be placed in the avenue west of Highland.

He also suggested a fire plug on Cascade street east of Croton and in general council sanctioned his safety ideas by voting favorably.

It was also stated that when the Jameson Memorial hospital is ready the city will be ready to put a fire alarm signal box in the hospital should it meet with hospital officials' desires.

Miss Burnett Is Champion Of Y. W. Tennis Tourney

MISS MYRTLE BURNETT

Another annual spring tennis tourney has been played off by the Y. W. C. A. with Miss Myrtle Burnett champion, after many hard fought games.

Miss Burnett's three hardest opponents were Ploy Owens, Mary Te well and Dee Rech, with Miss Rech playing in the final struggle for the championship. Miss Burnett plays a nice steady and even game. She employs a sure, swift serve and displays a marked agility in getting return balls. The steadiness of Miss Burnett's game is in great contrast to the sporadic playing of many players and this valuable skill should place her name high in local tennis records.

In capturing her title, Miss Burnett won 52 out of 74 games. The total number of games played in the tournament was 249. There were 22 entries in the tourney. The plans and running off of the entire tourney was conducted by Miss Lillian Ekblom, chairman of the sports committee of the athletic club of the Y. W. C. A.

At the present time the Y. W. C. A. is running off a tennis tournament in doubles.

Spring Reunion Occurs Next Week

Several Thousand Visitors Will Attend Sessions In Cathedral

Beginning Wednesday, May 22, and continuing through Thursday and Friday of that week, the Spring Reunion of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite will be held in the Cathedral. Several hundred members of the Masonic lodges of the western part of the state will be present to receive degrees and the reunion is expected to be one of the largest held in some time, according to William H. Dunlap, Commander-in-Chief.

Because a number of the cities represented by the candidates for consistorial degrees do not use Daylight Savings Time all of the degree work will be conducted on Eastern Standard Time.

Friday, May 24, has been designated as Ladies Day. On this day the wives, mothers, sisters and sweethearts of the membership will be featured and a special program has been arranged for them. On Friday evening the Spring Reunion Dinner will be held at 5:30 p. m. Eastern Standard Time, or 6:30 Daylight Savings Time. Following the dinner there will be a program of entertainment and a dance. This function is limited strictly to members and their ladies.

All arrangements for the reunion are about completed, according to Commander Dunlap, and a large corps of workers have their plans well in hand to handle the crowd, no matter how large it will be.

Genkinger Sends Council Complaint

J. F. Genkinger today sent a communication to city council which was read and acted upon when the city fathers met in regular meeting. Genkinger said the Harmony route had removed the brick from between tracks between Butler avenue and Paul street.

He said they had not been replaced.

His letter said that the company has not carried out its franchise as it promised to grade and has never done so.

Genkinger also alleged that a dangerous situation exists at Butler and Johns street.

"It is getting worse," the letter said. He intimated that it is so bad that a damage suit is liable any time.

Genkinger said that in Butler avenue there is a depression near the Schulz property.

Reeves said that action would be taken.

Demand Township Fix Hazlecroft Extension; Many Autos Are Mired

Many motorists have had the unpleasant experience of being mired in some of the sink holes on Hazlecroft extension through Neshannock township this spring, and a large number were added to this list on Saturday night and Sunday, because of the danger on the Wilmington road, it is reported.

Numerous drivers who passed the detour sign and got out Wilmington road as far as Hazlecroft, started across that road, much to their sorrow. The road is passable during dry weather, but when it rains, cars cannot ride the ridges but slip off into some of the sink holes along the thoroughfare. Then it's a case of an hour or two to get out.

Dempsey Denies Fight In Hotel With Benjamin

New York Papers Quote Benjamin As Saying Dempsey Knocked Him Cold

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 13.—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion, today emphatically denied that there was any truth in a story current along Broadway that he struck and knocked down Joe Benjamin, a former lightweight boxer and his friend of many years, during an altercation in a Fifth avenue hotel.

"Not a word of truth in that story," said Dempsey. "It has no foundation whatever."

Dempsey and Benjamin had been pals for years—in fact, the latter was best man at Jack's wedding.

According to the story told in Broadway sports circles and published in several New York papers, Benjamin is quoted as saying that the fracas occurred during a party in the hotel early Sunday morning. Benjamin was walking down a corridor of the hotel with his arms around two girls. Whatever then transpired caused Dempsey to rush from the room where the party was in progress and, after sharp words with Benjamin, unlocked a left to the body and a right to the jaw. Benjamin, who now weighs about 180, went down for the long count.

Dempsey is then supposed to have hastened to his room and locked the door. Benjamin—strangely enough—clamored for more.

One of the newspapers carrying the story said Benjamin is sporting a badly split lip and is "looking" for Dempsey.

All of which gives the ex-champ a laugh, although he is annoyed over publication of the yarn.

Commercial Graduates Need Recommendations Says 'Department Head

"Because a boy or girl is a graduate of the commercial course of our high school, does not necessarily mean that he or she could be recommended for a position in an office or store," said H. D. Book, head of the commercial department of the local senior high school, today, in commenting on some of the students graduating from that course.

Mr. Book went on to point out that in the commercial course, as in other courses, some students receive "C" and "D" averages, and some fail. The "C" or "D" student cannot be "recommended" but it is out of the question to recommend such a student for a responsible position.

"In the past," he stated, "boys and girls have been employed without recommendation, and later their employers have come to the realization that they cannot hold the job down, even though they have graduated from the commercial course."

"It is not too much to expect the teacher to have definite ideas about the personal characteristics of the student, such as honesty, industry, accuracy, initiative, neatness and the like, as well as to know what kind of grades he makes in bookkeeping, typewriting and English. We have come to the place where we believe that these characteristics of the young commercial worker are just as important as his scholastic standing."

"A commercial graduate placement service has been in effect now for a year at the senior high school. This plan keeps a record of the grades that commercial students receive in their studies, and it also keeps a record of teachers' opinions of students' personal characteristics."

Conferences are held with students to learn their interests, and later the commercial faculty analyzes the student to determine if he is fitted for the work he is interested in. When calls come to the high school for young commercial workers, the teachers of commercial students are in a position to recommend students who will in all probability make a success of the work they go into.

The commercial department of the senior high school is filling a real void here in the city in this respect. Last year many young workers were placed in positions here in the city, and 100 per cent of the ones recommended by the teachers are making good. This year's graduating class will be composed of quite a few commercial students who can be recommended by their teachers for positions of responsibility, but before any graduate is employed the teachers of commercial work should be questioned as to the fitness of the students for the work.

Pittsburgh Gets Cleveland Taxicab

(International News Service.) PITTSBURGH, May 12.—Cleveland taxicab operators are considering doing business here. An informal request has been made by a group of Cleveland financiers to Attorney H. Days' Prayer In Congress

The chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, at Thy mercy seat we would humbly bow, beseeching Thee to forgive our sins and let Thy love acquaint us that Thou dost pardon as we forgive. As our country has set its seal upon this congress and clothed it with the mantle of authority, Holy Spirit of God, give wise guidance to our speaker and all members and impress them that the deed is the man. In all situations may we hold on to our honor and keep our conscience clear. The Lord preserve our homes, where pour our thoughts and joys, for there are no such bonds on earth so tender and sublime. Strengthen our faith in humanity. As it takes two to be glad, lead us to seek always wholesome fellowship, when time comes creeping along and it is often so hard to be brave and happy. Be Thou our Great Companion, Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Two Seeking State Pardons

Nick Manos And Vaughn Smith Seek To Secure Liberty

(From News Bureau) (State Capital) HARRISBURG, May 13.—Application of Nick Manos, 23, convicted in the Lawrence county courts for a pardon will be considered by the pardon board here on Wednesday. Manos was sentenced on December 20, 1924 to serve from 7 1/2 to 14 years for robbery.

He lived in New Castle at the time of his arrest on November 22, 1924. Manos was taken into custody while sitting in a restaurant. He was charged with holding up Mike Solot and Phil Salka and robbing them of $82. The applicant claims he did not commit the crime.

The petition is submitted to the board on the papers filed and will not be argued.

The board will pass on another Lawrence county applicant at this month's session. It is a petition for a rehearing submitted by Vaughn Smith who on May 10, 1924 was sent to the Western Penitentiary for 6 to 12 years for second degree murder. In January of last year his first application for a pardon was turned down by the board.

Highland U. P. Sunday School Growing Rapidly

Plans Are Made To Finish Basement To Care For Increase In Numbers

Because of the tremendous expansion of the Highland U. P. Sabbath school during the past year, officers of the church are now faced with the problem of providing additional room to take care of the ever-growing increase. The increase in the past 12 months has amounted to more than 100.

Plans are now under way to finish the big room under the auditorium, which was not completed when the new addition was made to the church several years ago. This will amply take care of the anticipated growth of the school.

A financial campaign will be inaugurated within the next few weeks to provide funds for the addition and the building committee will have plans drawn for the project at once.

At the close of the past term, Blanche completed a six-year successive record without having missed a day of school or been tardy, while her brother Clark has completed his ninth year.

These honor attendance pupils are the children of Mrs. Robert Brown of Harlansburg.

Plane Squadron Outrides Storm

Thirty-One Army Planes Out-ride Storm At Uniontown On Way To Columbus Ohio

WILL TAKE PART IN BIG MANEUVERS

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 13.—Ten army airplanes, bound for the "war of the air" maneuvers to be held at Columbus, O., this week, still nestled in the shelter of Burgess field hang-ars here today, after they had out-raced a violent storm yesterday that for a while threatened serious damage to the squadron.

The planes were among 31 from Langley field, Va., and Mitchell field,
L. I., that were enroute to Dayton, O., for inspection before going on to Columbus for the maneuvers.

They had gotten about 80 miles west of here and were in sight of Moundsville, W. Va., when they saw a violent rain and thunderstorm directly ahead.
Turning tail, the squadron started the race back to Burgess field only to have the storm sweep in on them at right angles to their course.

For a time, squadron leaders feared the planes would be enveloped by the storm but they succeeded in riding it out and all of the ships landed safely.
Only one suffered any damage, and that was slight—a scratched wing.

A score of the planes took off last evening, after the storm had passed over, and proceeded toward Dayton.
Ten others, under the command of Major W. H. Frank, John Pearson,
Frank D. Luckland, and Bart Hodges, of Langley field, remained here overnight and were to take off today as soon as favorable weather reports were received. The leaders expected to resume their flight to Dayton shortly afternoon.

FORCED DOWN BY MOTOR TROUBLE

Face Slightly Cut When Plane
Descends At Lawrence
Junction

Frank Hadin, flying a Waco plane
for the Meyer Aircraft Company from Bridgeville toward Youngstown, on Saturday evening was forced down
by motor trouble at Lawrence junction. Hadin sustained a laceration of the face when the windshield broke. The plane was damaged.

Hadin was flying at an altitude of between 600 and 700 feet when engine trouble developed. He came down, it being the third time he has been forced down Saturday, the other times being at Bridgeville.

His trip to Youngstown was being made to pick up a passenger to convey to Pittsburgh.

Seventeen persons were injured,

Youth Who Left Home For Circus Now Famous Trainer

Horatio Alger heroes have nothing on Clyde Beatty who ran away from his home in Chillicothe, Ohio, and returned several years later as a famous animal subjugator. Today this youngster is acknowledged as the greatest wild animal subjugator in all the world and his presentation of 32 lions and tigers is one of the principal features of the Hagenbeck Wallace circus.

In 1921 Beatty was in his classrooms and heard the sound of an air callopie. He dashed from his school and when the circus left town that night he had secured a job as animal attendant. It was his first step in the ladder which brought him to the top as the foremost trainer of jungle brutes in this country.

When the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus comes to New Castle on May 25 you will find Beatty listed as one of the big features. His act alone is worth the price of admission.

Penna. Members Of Congress For Tariff Measure

Will Vote For Administration Bill Despite Opposition To Some Items

REED'S ATTITUDE STILL DOUBTFUL

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 13.—The Pennsylvania delegation in the House of Representatives has decided to vote for the tariff revision bill although there are several items in the measure that are not entirely pleasing to members of the delegation.

This announcement, which came after a caucus of the Pennsylvania Congressmen, occasioned considerable relief on the part of sponsors of the tariff bill, for it had been reported that various Pennsylvania members were going to offer violent opposition to the measure which might damage badly republican peace of mind.

But the question of how Senator David Reed will react to the bill remains a moot question. It is reported here that the Grundy interests of Philadelphia are planning a fight against the measure when it reaches the Senate, and whether or not Senator Reed will join them has not yet been determined.

Senator Reed's recent fight against the repeal of the national origins clause has earned for him a reputation of being ready to differ with the President and the administration when he is so inclined, and republican wheel-horses will watch him with considerable anxiety until the tariff revision program shall have been approved by the Senate.

Virginia Citizens Are Aroused Over Student's Killing

Governor Harry Byrd Being Petitioned To Suspend Officers In Recent Outrage

(International News Service) ABINGDON, Va., May 13.—Petitions were being circulated here today calling upon Governor Harry Byrd to launch an investigation of the fatal shooting of J. M. Kendrick, 17-year-old Henry and Emory College student, who was killed by the bullets of officers while in pursuit of a suspected run running automobile. The officers, Policemen James Reynolds and Deputy Sheriffs James Crowe and William Worley, are under $5,000 bail each on a homicide charge. Since the shooting, Crowe has been stricken with nervous prostration, complicated by heart disease. Physicians say his illness may prove fatal.

Many signatures have been obtained to the petitions. It is reported the appeal to Governor Byrd also asks that the executive ascertain why the three officers have not been suspended from duty.

No liquor was found in Kendrick's car, nor was he or either of his two companions, Paul Phelps and Sterling Dutton, intoxicated, physicians said.

Agents Nab Huge Amount Of Depe At Pittsburgh

Four Under Arrest In Connection With Big Narcotic Ring In Pittsburgh

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, May 13.—Believed to be the distributors for a dope ring, three women and one aged man were held by police here today pending action by federal narcotic agents after a raid on a north side house where 34 cubes of morphine, 15 hypodermic needles and four dope "guns" were seized.

Those held are: Mike Bell, 70; Maggie Marshall, 60, of East Liverpool, O.; Annie Lowrie, 40, and Florence Wilson, 40, of Pittsburgh.

The raid was made when police were notified that Bell had attempted to purchase a hypodermic "gun" and needles at a local drug store. Police trailed him after the druggist had reported the purchase, to the house where Bell is alleged to have delivered the package to the Marshall woman, and the narcotics were discovered.

Postpone Current Meeting Because Of Minstrel Show For Hospital Benefit

No meeting of the New Castle Booster club will be held this week, officers of the club announce, because of the minstrel show which is being given at the Cathedral on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings by the Civic Entertainers.

The Booster club is deeply interested in the show which is being given for the benefit of the maintenance fund of the Jameson Memorial hospital and which they are assisting to put over, the Booster club having guaranteed the sale of 300 tickets for the project.

American Experts On Reparations Are Working Feverishly

Americans Determined To Bring About Solution To Intricate Subject

(International News Service) PARIS, May 13.—Resolved to do their utmost to solve Europe's reparation problem, American experts at the reparations conference prepared today to launch a final drive to bring about a solution.

Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the Reichsbank, and Dr. Albert Voegler, leaders of the German delegation, are expected back in this city today after a week-end visit to Berlin. During which they studied the Reichsbank's restriction of credits to industry which was violently protested by Ruhr industrialists.

Reports are current that Dr. Schacht will make the principal feature of the German reservations to the Young "compromise plan" a stipulation that Germany be permitted to demand revision of annuities at the expiration of a period of ten or fifteen years.

Considerable bickering among the various European delegations is expected to enliven the conference this week.

Observers now look upon the conference as entering its final stage, and it is conceded that if a satisfactory agreement is to be reached, it will have to be done this week.

V. F. W. Committees To Meet Tonight

Our Certificate of Quality is a record of all material, by item—their grades, etc.—and will prove invaluable in case of resale. It will also help to quickly consummate a loan and to eliminate all question of structural value.

Alike in appearance and location—cost the same to build—but

NO buyer could be found for one house—while the other sold quickly—and brought a fair profit. Why?

Simply because the owner of house No. 1 could not produce tangible evidence of "built-in" quality to assure the buyer of low maintenance cost, and higher resale and loan value... while the owner of the second was able to show a Certificate of Quality —proof positive of CERTIFIED MATERIAL in the building. This written evidence of hidden structural value greatly simplified the sale.

The public is being educated to the importance of using CERTIFIED MATERIAL—and the value of having, in addition to the Deed, documentary evidence of hidden structural quality.

College Jersey Cow Wins 4 Gold Medals

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., May 13.—A Jersey cow, winner of four gold medals for outstanding production, attracted the attention of visitors at the annual Penn State Dairy Exposition here yesterday.

Option's Ima Daytonia is the name of this famous cow in the college herd. To win a gold medal from the American Jersey Cattle Club she had to produce 700 pounds of butterfat in a year or 610 pounds in 365 days. To prove that her first record was no accident, this college cow repeated for three successive years.

As a 5-year-old, Option's Ima Daytonia produced 621.36 pounds of butterfat in 365 days; the next year she increased her yield to 756.75 pounds in 365 days. As a 7-year-old she produced 792.77 pounds of butterfat in 185 days, and the fourth year completed a 365-day test with 610.05 pounds to her credit.

On the daily basis her butterfat production was 2.32, 2.07, 2.17, and 2.00 pounds respectively for the four shows an even closer uniformity, being 41.5, 43, 43.6, and 41.2 pounds daily for the four years. The value of the cow's product, sold as certified milk, ranged from $707.74 in 1926 months to $1073.22 in a full year. The returns above feed cost ranged from $518.76 in 10 months to $846.87 in 12 months.

Penn State Host To Many Parents

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., May 13.—Penn State students, faculty and officers experienced a busy week-end with over 1000 parents at the college for the observance of national Mothers' Day. The Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association advisory committee for the college department of journalism, and thirty British cinema-mists on an inspection tour of Pennsylvania refractories also were visitors to the campus.

A feature of the Mothers' Day week-end was the annual May Day fete at which Anne Fernsler, of Sunbury, Apple of Perkasie, and Dorothy Burrall, of Avon, were hostesses at a tea given by the women students of the college in honor of the mothers. The Sunday chapel service was conducted by the Rev. Philip Justice Steinmetz, of Philadelphia who spoke on "A Mother's Memory."

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

There is such a thing as poetic justice. Once in a blue moon the fates seem to step in and mete out justice that is prompt, that is merited and which meets the approval of us all.

Saturday afternoon saw as nice a piece of poetic justice given on the detour to the Wilmington road as one would care to see. If it serves as a warning to others, then everybody will be satisfied.

It happened on a particularly dusty piece of the detour. Great clouds of dust were billowing out from back of every automobile, and cars and drivers alike were covered. A small truck was on the road and apparently the driver was one of these big hearted lads who was willing to take his half of the road smack dab out of the middle.

Passing him was impossible unless he moved over, and he refused to do that. Pleasure cars kept piling up in back of him, but he kept serenely on, unperturbed to all the courtesies of the road.

A state highway truck was parked on the road, unloading crushed limestone on a soft spot, and the soft spot went over to the ditch, where a young bog was located.

It was an easy passage to the left of the highway truck and a squeeze to the right. The truck driver seemed to think that by using the right-hand side he could get through it in time to keep up his blocking tactics and he took the chance.

And then the fates stepped in. Some imp of perversity must have shoved the truck a bit and the right wheels sank in to the hub. The pleasure cars were enabled to get by and spread out, thus getting rid of part of the dust nuisance.

Did any of the drivers lean out and wish the truck driver well? Did they stop and ask if he needed a lift? Did they express any sorrow at his unfortunate plight?

They did not. They merely chuckled a nasty chuck and went by the truck with a smile. As far as they were concerned the truck was in for the rest of the summer. And I hope the truck driver and all his fellow drivers will remember that it doesn't hurt to be courteous on the road.

Some folks just won't believe in signs, including the state highway signs. In spite of the detour signs on the Wilmington road, a lot of cars insisted on going through Saturday night, and all of them had the same experience. Just beyond the driveway of Attorney William J. Caldwell's place there is a trench in the road six or eight feet deep and 10 feet wide. Business of turning around and going back to New Castle, where the signs pointed out the proper route.

Coming into town the drivers seemed to think the signs were merely a gesture also. At the end of the macadam there is a cable barrier, a "Road Closed" sign, and detour finger boards. Back of that about 300 feet is a large sign indicating that the road is closed and a detour is necessary. All of them were of no avail for at least half a dozen drivers. One had tried to blast his way through the cable and did as pretty a job of shearing off a fender as you cared to see. The cable is loosened and the supports also, but the decision goes to the cable. It was still on its feet at the bell.

All of us can afford to be careful in driving the detour. It is a narrow road, and runs through a swampy district for a stretch. On either side is a treacherous ditch, and crowding the other fellows means that he may get mired. Sunday afternoon saw a number of such instances and wreckers did some work pulling cars out of the mud.

It will be inconvenient for a couple of months driving that detour, but improvements and inconveniences sometimes go hand-in-hand. When the road is completed most of us will agree that the inconvenience was well worth bearing, for the new road will be a boulevard that will be a pleasure to drive.

Seems like automobile wrecks occupy most of the attention of the column today. Saw an example of what non-shatter glass means in a windshield Saturday night.

An Ohio driver coming up Mill street either couldn't drive well or was crowded or something, near Home street. Instead of going around a car that was parked at the curb, he selected to drive straight into it. A young lady sitting at his side was catapulted into the windshield, but the non-shatter glass never broke. It looked as though someone had tapped it with a hammer and there seemed to be a million cracks in it, but had it been ordinary glass the lady's head would have gone through and a severed jugular vein may have been the result.

It didn't do her nose any good, fact is it looked like a tomato when the car stopped, but a short visit to the hospital fixed things up.

Sly! That's "B.O." Tricks us into thinking we're safe—then shows us up to others—"Guilty."

HONOR MOTHER AT ELLWOOD CHURCH SERVICES ON SUNDAY

Large Crowds Attend Special Services As Tribute
To Mother

MRS. HENDERSON IS HONORED AS OLDEST

Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. J.
B. Morrison Honored
At services in First
Christian Church

ELLWOOD CITY, May 13.—The local churches were all filled to capacity at all services conducted here yesterday in honor of Mother's Day. The oldest known mother attended the Baptist church at the age of 85, Mrs. Sara Henderson. She received a gift of a potted plant.

At the First Christian church Mrs. Stevens, aged 70, was the oldest mother in attendance, and she received a lovely plant. Mrs. J. B. Morrison, the mother having the most members of her family in attendance, also was presented with a plant. The activities in the various churches are announced as follows:

Baptist Church
Yesterday the platform of the church was beautifully decorated with ferns and palms and cut flowers. The Sunday school and church merged into one large congregation for the Mother's Day program. In the evening Mrs. Frank Huffman sang a lovely vocal solo. On Thursday the annual May meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist Association takes place in the First Baptist church of New Castle at 10. Mrs. Frank Newcomb, president of the Women's Missionary Union of Pennsylvania, will be the speaker. There will be a dinner served at noon.

Christian Church
In a beautifully decorated church the annual Mother's Day program was successfully carried out yesterday. There were 47 in the congregation. On Tuesday evening members of the choir will rehearse at eight o'clock. Wednesday evening is Adult Bible class night and members of the Progressive class will have charge of the prayer service.

The saying, "nobody loves a fat man" does not count in the men's contest in the church. The men are divided into two classes, the Beefeaters and the Porkers. The contest is run according to the combined weights of the two classes, and on Sunday it was learned that the Porkers were ahead by 60 pounds.

Slippery Rock
An excellent Mother's Day program was enjoyed in the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church yesterday. Plans for the week are listed as follows: This evening there will be a rehearsal of the young people's orchestra in the church. Tuesday evening members of the choir meet at 7:30. Wednesday evening prayer meeting at the home of William Weinberger of the New Castle road. Friday evening the annual Mothers and Daughters banquet at seven o'clock in the church dining room. Saturday afternoon at two the children will meet to rehearse for the coming Children's Day program.

Bell Memorial
The pageant, "A Mother's Daughter", which was presented in the Bell Memorial church in place of the evening service, went over very well, pointing out a moral to the appreciative audience. The story illustrated that some mothers seem too conservative and other daughters too aggressive, but Aunt Jane comes along and brings the two to a better understanding.

Thursday evening at the church the annual mothers and daughters banquet takes place, with the menu being served by the men. All planning to attend should make reservations with the following committee: Rev. J. A. King, Earl Marshall, L. Buege, John Mattox, Thayer Peters and John Stone.

This evening members of class No. 19 will conduct a monthly meeting at the home of Miss Mary Klingensmith of Hazel avenue.

Tuesday evening members of the trustees and sessions will conduct a monthly meeting at the church. Wednesday evening the usual weekly prayer service.

Your Broadway AND Mine

WALTER WINCHELL

By Central Press

NEW YORK, May 11.—When we knew him he was a dapper, dainty and unassuming version of "Franky and Johnny" as he fingered the keyboard of a small piano in a speakeasy. That was a few years ago, before Mabel Willebrandt took the giggle out of Giggie Water Canyon. You tipped him with a one, deuce or five spot if he played and sang at your table and it was part of his dizzy routine to drink when you offered him one. He wrote songs on the side which were never published.

The long hours and dissipation finally sent him to Saranac, where after a year he was cured. He returned to Broadway and wrote off the liquor. Today he has one of the more dependable boozie companions, which has five warehouses, and his mother still thinks he writes songs for a living.

So that she won't know what he really does, he improvises melodies, pays a little writer a fee for an exclusive lyric, has the same music published with his photo on the front cover and forwards the copies home. Last week he paid a warden $500 just to sing the day of one performance at an up-town theater so that his mother would not only be convinced—but thrilled.

These Simple Rules Make Teething Easy

Be careful of baby's diet during teething. Do not overfeed him. Watch his stomach and bowels and at the first sign of indigestion, gas or constipation, give him a few drops of harmless, pleasant-tasting Fletcher's Castoria. These simple rules are making teething easy on millions of babies—and mothers, too. For over thirty years Castoria has been the trusted standby of mothers everywhere. It soothes wakeful, restless babies to sleep quickly and easily—and it's purely vegetable so you can give it as often as needed. It does the work of castor oil better and more gently. For your protection, the bottle of genuine Castoria always bears the Fletcher signature.

TEE-HEE

In most newspaper offices the place where they keep back numbers of the paper, files of this and that, photos, clippings and cuts is known as "the morgue." The World, Herald Tribune and New York Times, for example, refer to it as "the morgue." In one or two of the less important newspaper offices "the morgue" is known as "the library," but at one of the tabloids it is called "the reference room."

Isadore Lievinne, who spells it that way, was recently jailed after Mr. Summer, the censor, confiscated a book he had written. Come this summer from the defendant: "My dear Mr. Winchell: I feel it is my duty to report that on May 1, at precisely 10:43 in the evening, I saw John Summer himself enter a United Cigar store in the village, corner 8th St. and Smith Ave., and linger over the counter with what intentions I know not. I mention this fact with no evil intent, merely for the guidance of some remote historian of our moral epoch. I did not shadow John Summer the way he did me. I did not haul him into police station, the way he did me, and I did not ask him who the woman he was with and why, and I did not seize the paper he was about to buy or arrest him for the novel he may write some day. I leave it to the discriminating readers of your column to decide who is a better man, John Summer or I? May I also add that John Summer was not shaven and I was? Faithfully, Isadore Lievinne, Ex-Convict."

"Salt Water," previously labeled "Barraкуда," by Dan Jarrett, goes into rehearsal this week for an Atlantic City tryout the week of May 27, and "When in Rome," by John Kirkpatrick, follows two weeks later.

"Frankie and Johnnie," the dramatized legend of a woman done wrong, will be A. H. Woods' first managerial activity since his return from abroad. This play, with its scenes laid on the levees of the Mississippi, fronting St. Louis, in 1850, enlists a cast of 50 principals and extras. It is by John M. WHEN A LOON SENDS AN SOS

By this time all the young Geese had stopped their whimpering—their flight turned to curiosity—and were staring at the approaching stranger, and Peter, happened to glance at Father Gander and Mrs. Wild Goose and the other grown-up members of the Wild Goose flock, noticed that they were smiling.

Father Wild Gander caught the boy's eyes and winked at him, then turned to Tommy Gosling, who had stepped a few paces away from his mother's side and was trying to speak.

"Well, son, what is it now?" said Father Gander. "You do not seem as much afraid as you did a moment or so ago. Have you guessed who the stranger is?"

"No, I don't think so! Yes I have!" Tommy Gosling contradicted himself twice and then he did a daring thing—he stepped toward the newcomer.

"Hello Loon," said he. "How are you this evening?"

"Fine, young Goose," replied Loon for Loon indeed it was. "I would never do for me to be anything else at twilight. I should miss too much fun!"

The fellow gave another of the wild laughs that had so startled Peter and the Goslings.

Peter now knew just what that weird noise was and who had made it, but in spite of this the wild, laugh made him tingle all over just as it had the first time he heard it. He did not like the sound any better, either. It made him feel a little cross.

Peter forgot that Loon was not talking to him at all, but to the Geese, and spoke to the fellow quite as though he had known him for a long, long while.

"Why do you laugh like that?" said Peter sharply. "Can't you make a little less noise and have just as good a time? That screech of yours doesn't sound a bit as though you were amused. Any one to hear you would think you were crazy!"

"Being a Loon, who knows but

"HELLO LOON," SAID HE.

what I am?" replied the stranger, who, whatever other faults he may have had, was certainly not bad-tempered, for he winked at the boy as he spoke.

"If you think my laugh is queer, though, you ought to hear my call. There are hundreds of birds in these woods, yet I'll bet you a silver fish not a one of them can make a noise like it."

"That is why, no matter how far away he is, if a Loon gets into trouble and calls for help the rest of his family will stop whatever they may be doing—drop a fish right out of their mouths if necessary—and wing their way straight to his side. There is no danger of their not knowing which way to go. All he has to do is to keep right on sending out the S-O-S and they follow the cry, that could only come from the throat of a Loon, to its source to give their comrade aid."

Next: "A Lad, a Laugh and a Loon."

Grundy To Lead State Fight On Tariff Measure

Head Of Pennsylvania Manufacturers Disappointed In Present Revision Bill

PLANS ORGANIZATION FOR SENATE DRIVE

By ARTHUR G. WIMER
Special Washington News Correspondent
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13.—Tariff trouble is brewing in Washington these days, and Pennsylvania is seen as one of the states which will play a leading role on the tariff fight which promises to take place in the house.

Joseph R. Grundy of Philadelphia, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' association and one of the leading high tariff advocates, is disappointed by the tariff revision bill and has already taken steps to fight it in the house and senate.

The house measure does not place a much-desired tariff on cement. Grundy admits that, but he admits it without any smile of gratitude for the writers of the bill. He wanted also protection on pig iron and structural steel, and he plans to get it.

A part of Grundy's plan is the reorganization of a producers protective assembly in Washington within the next few weeks. Industrialists favoring a higher tariff will gather and organize for the purpose of conducting a determined drive on the senate. Grundy is said to have received promises from high tariff advocates in 36 states to join this movement.

Grundy is disappointed at the revisions authorized by the tariff measure and feels they are not just to Pennsylvania. He regards the failure of the ways and means committee to substitute the American valuation plan for the existing European system as distinctly disappointing.

The hopes of members of congress for a brief special session are rapidly fitting with the developments in Washington over the farm relief bill and the tariff measure. Protracted controversies in the house and the senate over both pieces of legislation are seen, and it begins to look as though the dreams of a pleasant summer which a number of congressmen have been entertaining may fade into the hue of autumn leaves.

Senator David Reed is one of the leading proponents of high tariff in Washington, and he is regarded here as one of the members of the senate most dangerous to President Hoover's program of limited revision.

Senator Reed and the president haven't been agreeing a great deal since Hoover took office. The senator came out flatly in opposition to Hoover insofar as the national origins clause of the immigration act is concerned, and although he supported the administration in voting against the denature plan of farm relief, his vote isn't taken as an indication that he is going to countenance limited revision.

Washington has it that Reed is backed by a formidable number of manufacturers in the Keystone state who expect to defeat the Hoover program on tariff, and Washington agrees that if Reed becomes spokesman for this group in the senate a commotion is bound to follow.

It is admitted that the tariff measure as written by the house does not do much for metals and the manufactures of metals. And in this failure a lively fight is forecast in the senate with Senator Reed a figure in the center of activities.

Learn what blessed relief Ten Herbs is giving thousands of local sufferers by calling on the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily demonstrating this famous new medicine with the ten wonderful herbal ingredients.

"The way Ten Herbs benefited my whole system is beyond words to tell," was the recent statement of Mr. Albert Thomas, 320 Shaw Ave., New Castle, to the Ten Herbs Man. "For a long time my health had been poor," continued Mr. Thomas, who is a salesman. "I was always ailing—never up to par. My appetite was not good, and food did not seem to benefit me much. I had terrible dizzy spells—everything would turn black, and I would have to remain quiet for awhile to recover my balance. Spots were always in front of my eyes. I had severe bilious spells, and my head would ache. My nerves were in bad condition, and I was easily annoyed. My skin had a yellowish tinge. I did not sleep well, as I was constantly getting up. There were severe pains across my back. I always felt tired—had no pep to do things."

"I read about Ten Herbs in the paper, and noted that many cases in which it had been helped seemed similar to mine. I started using your medicine, and now my health troubles have been relieved. I enjoy my meals. Dizziness and that tired feeling have been ended, and I have more pep for my work. I am not troubled with severe headaches like I was, and my nerves are in much better condition. The pains in my back have ceased, and I can get a good night's rest. My skin has become clear and healthy looking. Ten Herbs has helped me so much that it is a pleasure for me to recommend your medicine to others."

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

Finds Tiger's Cage No Place For Rest Girl Is Fatally Injured By Auto

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 13.—The top of a cage housing a Bengal tiger is no place to sit, even if the old "dogs" are tired.

George Stokes, 25, learned that. Tired of walking about the lot where a circus is playing here, George climbed up on what looked like a good place to sit and dangled his feet over the side.

The "kitty" underneath began munching George's foot, and the circus physician had to take 34 stitches in it.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., May 13.—Dorothy Herr, 8, daughter of William Herr, North Sewickley farmer, died in the Providence hospital from a fractured skull, suffered when struck, police say, by an automobile driven by Paul Phillips, 30, of Salem, O. The girl had just gotten out of the car of her father and started across Sixth street when the Phillips machine ran her down. The child was dragged for nearly one city block.

Coroner H. C. McCarter ordered the arrest of Phillips on a charge of voluntary manslaughter pending an inquest.

Saddened By Death Of Wife, Man Kills Self With Bullet

Devoted Wife Dies Of Illness,

cides In Few Hours

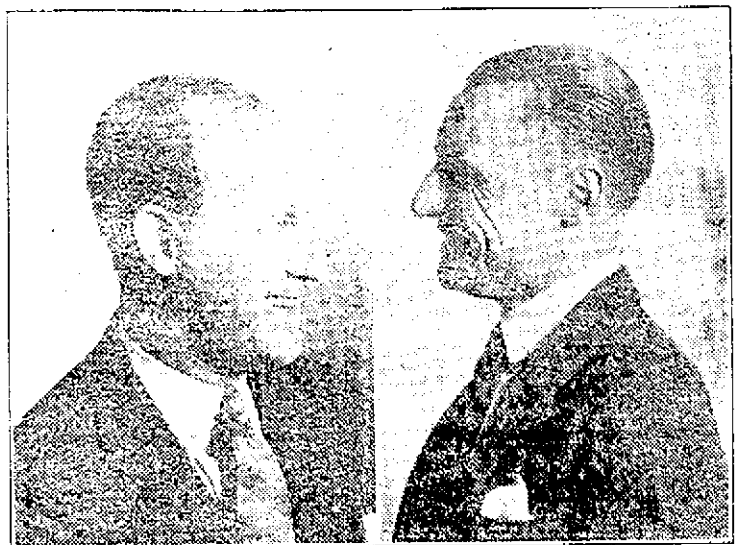

DEATH OF HIS wife in 1912-13, together with the death of his only son, Fred, in 1925, have been the cause of the death of a man who was killed in a hotel room here yesterday.

James J. Cummings died at the hotel room here yesterday. He was 54 years of age and was married for 17 years. He had two children, Fred and Jean.

After a separation of nearly four years, Harry Ellwell and Joe Love, premier minstrel men of New Castle, are reunited again and are teamed together in the big Minstrel and Revue to be staged Tuesday and Wednesday evening May 14 and 15 in the Cathedral auditorium for the benefit of the James Memorial hospital maintenance fund.

They are the same old fun makers of yore and augmented by six other men of high caliber along minstrel lines will make plenty of "whoopie" at the coming entertainment.

Bill Provides For Oil, Water Probers

City To Pay $25 For Necessary Evidence Relative To Sewer Probers

Council in session at City Hall today took action to move toward elimination of oil, grease, other viscous materials and surface water from the sanitary sewer system of New Castle.

In fact, the ordinance, reported favorably from committee, offers a reward of $25 to any person who will supply true, sufficient and adequate evidence and testimony necessary for conviction.

Should any person be caught disposing of oil, grease, viscous materials or surface water into the sanitary sewer system and be convicted a fine of $250 can be levied by the mayor.

Another ordinance which was introduced some time ago by Councilman Tyler prohibits the disposal of oil, grease, other viscous materials and surface water into the sanitary sewer.

The question of oil, etc., is a vexing problem at the disposal plant. The problem of roof water has been a much discussed question for years. Time and again council has threatened to cause an abatement. Nothing effective has ever been done. It is said, and the reward is a bait obviously for someone other than the city employees to gain evidence.

It was said during council session that in order to determine if roof water is entering the sewer it would be necessary for someone to climb on a roof, apply some red paint and then go to a manhole.

Should the water show the color of the paint, the person who makes the investigation would provide the information and the city would bring the charge, and the person guilty would be placed on trial.

Mrs. Stevens Is Slowly Gaining

Shown In Condition; Little Daughter Leaves Hospital

Continued improvement is being shown in the condition of Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens, wife of William Stevens, of Leaside street, who was terribly injured in the fire which destroyed their home more than a week ago, resulting in the death of three of their children.

The burns on her arms and face are slowly healing, and a marked improvement was noted in her condition today, the attending physician stated this morning. It was feared that her eyesight might be impaired, but this condition has now cleared up, and continued improvement is expected.

Little Eleanor, aged 4, who was rescued by her mother from the burning home, was discharged from the hospital this morning and taken to her home.

Castle News Is Distributed Today

"Castle News", the official organ of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce and the weekly issue to appear this spring, is being distributed among the members today.

The sheet is a four-page affair and contains a resume of industrial, business and civic activities for the past month.

The little booklet also heralds the second membership meeting of the organization, which is to occur on Thursday evening at The Castleton.

AUTO TRAVELS WHEN BRAKES LET CAR GO

According to the report made to the police Sunday, the car of D. W. Houli, Hollywood, Florida, while parked in front of a friends home on Leaside avenue, started east up the street, when the brakes failed to hold the machine.

Fortunately, the machine did not get in the way of any traffic and was stopped when it bumped into and went over the curb at the Albert street and Leaside avenue intersection. The damage actually done was very slight.

VIEW SMITHFIELD "RUN"
Councilman Tyler and colleague today will inspect the Smithfield street "run". It is alleged a Mr. Reed built a bridge which has changed the course of the stream which may overflow with damage.

portunity of righting the ship in time to make a safe landing. The result was that he was killed in the fall of the ship as it crashed to the earth.

World War Flier.
Captain Smith was of rather reserved disposition and during the many months he spent here with Robert C. Love, instructing the latter in the use of his plane he gave little information relative to his World War experience, which was in reality quite the equal of the record of some of the more famous aviators of that conflict. This reserve was in keeping with the type of a man he showed himself to be in the operation of airplanes. He was cool, courageous and taking advantage of every opportunity in the operation of planes while following his occupation.

When the World War broke out he was in this country but immediately left for England where he enrolled in the aviation forces of that country and served throughout the war with distinction.

He is known to have shot down quite a number of enemy planes the number of which he however would never admit and to have crashed twice himself.

In one instance he was shot down from an elevation of four thousand feet by an anti-aircraft gun and in the crashing was terribly injured, his legs being broken and his body generally being in a crushed and terribly injured condition.

He however recovered and resumed flying as soon as his recovery was fully assured. After the war he returned to this country and since that time had spent most of his time in and about New York city as a pilot of private interests in commercial air service work, being one of the best known aviators of that district. He also spent some time as an instructor of those desiring to learn aviation.

Flew to New Castle.
It is something like a year ago when he became acquainted with Mr. Love at New York and when the latter purchased his new English plane of the latest type he piloted the machine with Mr. Love as passenger into the McMillen farm field on the Harlansburg road, one morning, surprising the community. In the months that followed he became known to a considerable group of people and was highly respected by all those who came in contact with him as he spent a considerable part of his time here.

During his last stay here he was

Council today put on their dusters, waded into the committee of the whole during council session and reported out favorably several ordinances which have been reposing in the "hole" for some time. The measures which go to the printer pending final vote follow:

Paving of Meyer avenue between Highland avenue and Carlisle street.

Construction of sidewalks in Wilmington avenue between Boyles avenue and city line was repealed as an ordinance for this improvement was introduced months ago and the original ordinance will stand as passed.

Construction of sidewalks in Logan street between Laurel avenue and Moody avenue.

Construction of sidewalks in Garfield avenue between Mercer street and Wilmington avenue.

Erection of flood wall on the north line of Neshamock creek within the lines of Apple alley.

Paving of Fairmont avenue between Highland avenue and Carlisle street.

Paving of Pearson street between the end of the present Pearson street paving and Taylor street.

Paving of Reynolds street between South Mill street and Pollock avenue.

City To Suggest Safety Devices

Mayor Gillespie in session with colleagues in city hall today said residents had informed him no siren is sounded by Harmony cars at Rose avenue, Beckford or Adams street.

"I was on one car which lifted an auto off the track," said Davies.

Councilman Tyler instructed Solicitor White to suggest to the Harmony route officials that safety devices be installed.

SEWER IS UNDERMINED

City Engineer Miller today reported to council in meeting at city hall that the sanitary sewer in Grant street below the P. R. R. track is undermined. Council will view and suggest a remedy.

WOMAN OBSERVES 89TH BIRTHDAY VISITING NEWS

Mrs. Mary Adams of this city, celebrated her 89th birthday today by making a call on The News and President P. L. Renz. Mrs. Adams came to this city in 1892 and has been a resident here for many years. For the past few years she has divided her time between the homes of members of her family here and elsewhere.

Mrs. Adams is now staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. D. Allen, of Spruce street. Other children include George Adams, Richelleu avenue, Eli Adams, of Butte, Montana, and Gerod Adams, of Tionesta, Pa.

The aged woman seemed to be in perfect health and was evidently enjoying her 89th birthday to the full.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

The Story Of The World War
VIII—Germany Declares War On Russia And France

On July 31, 1914, Germany sent an ultimatum to St. Petersburg, demanding that the mobilization of the Russian army cease at once, and gave Russia twelve hours to reply. There was no reply, and on August 1 Germany declared war.

Knowing that France was Russia's ally, Germany on July 31 demanded to know her intentions. France was given eighteen hours to choose between war and neutrality, and was required, if she chose the latter course, to hand over her mighty border fortresses of Verdun and Toul as security for her neutrality.

France began mobilizing her army, and on August 1 replied to the German ultimatum that she would "consult her interests." August 3 Germany declared war on France. The German plan was to crush France with one swift, mighty blow and then deal with Russia.

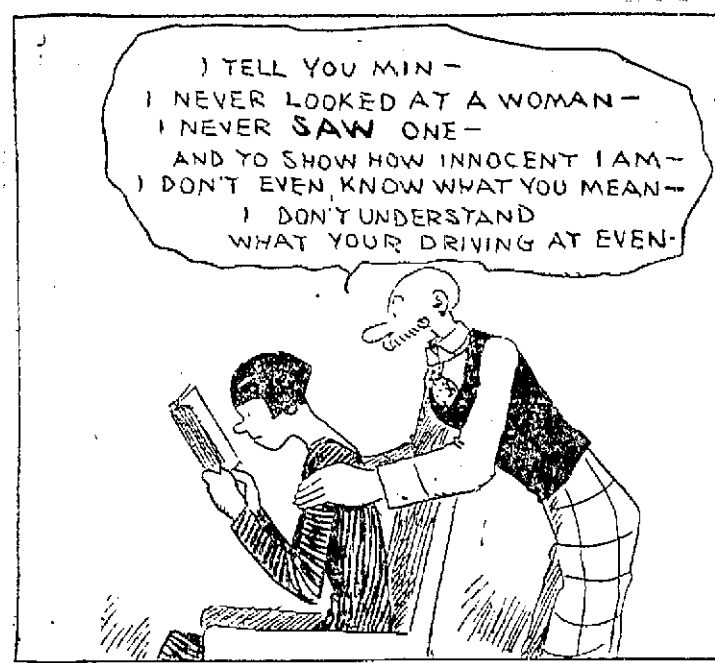

For the whirlwind attack on France, Germany, since beginning mobilization, had massed 52 divisions, divided into five armies, on her western border. On the second of August German troops invaded the neutral duchy of Luxembourg and seized the railways, a long-planned measure to speed the German movement in the west.

The Thrill Seeker

When a sportsman stinks some six million dollars in a hobby out of which he only anticipates a thrill, it seems that sooner or later he should get a terrific kick which would make up for his heavily sugared investment.

If the Chicago Cubs succeed in romping home with the bunting in this year's National League gallop the books of one of Chicago's leading financiers may be balanced up. William Wrigley is the sportsman who has the important dough invested in a hobby. The hobby is baseball and the money is scattered around three ball clubs in which the Chicagoan is heavily interested—the Chicago Cubs of the National League, the Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast League and the Reading Internationals.

Wrigley is a dyed-in-the-wool fan. He attends a baseball game whenever it is possible for him to do so and he has been known to sidetrack important business conferences if they interfered with his thrill-seeking in the national pastime.

A Good Sticker But—

By QUIN HALL
If President John Heydler's team idea had gone into effect in the National League this summer, Babe Herman of the Brooklyn Robins would have been one happy guy.

Herman, if you don't know it, is quite a batsman. He would probably have been called upon to do all of the hitting for Uncle Robbie's twirlers and with nothing to worry about but base hits, this young man could have fattened up his batting average considerably.

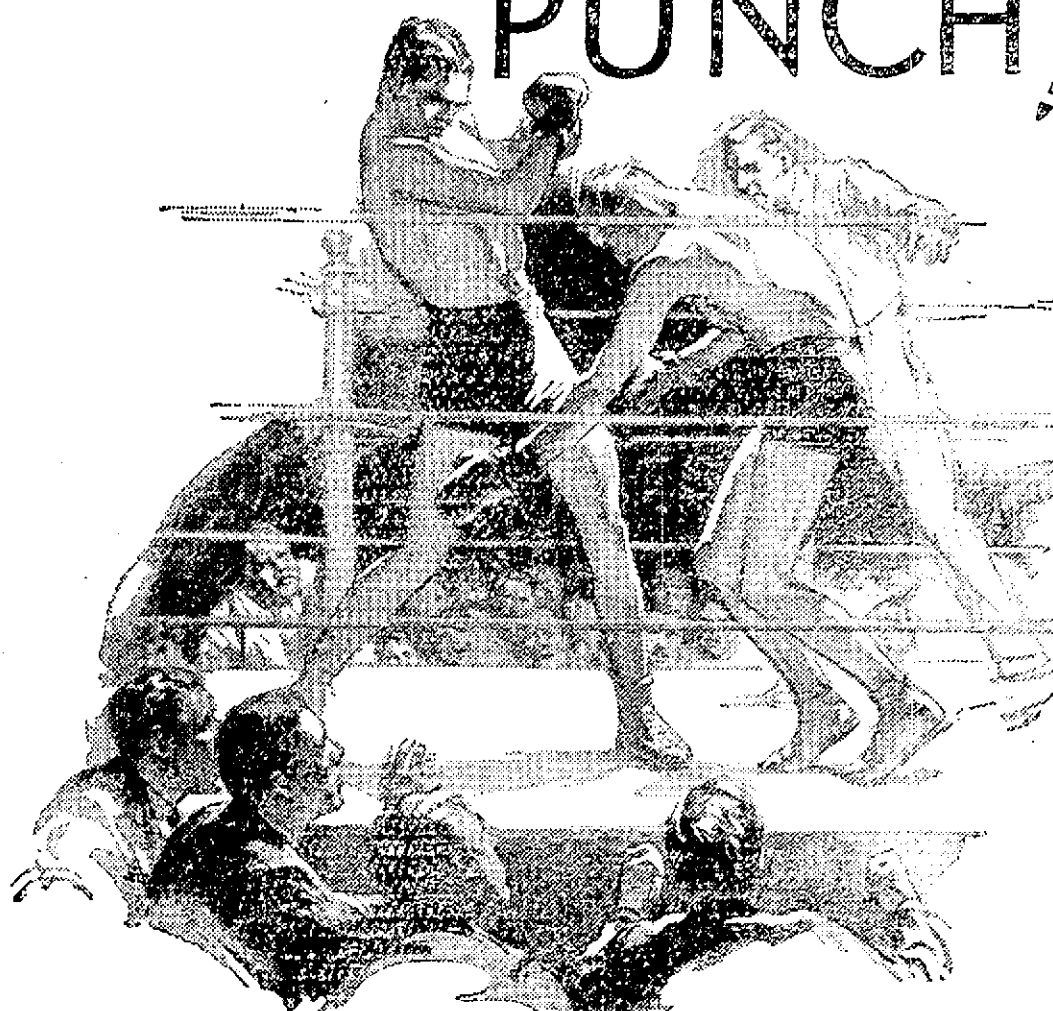

Herman can hit. But under the present arrangement, which calls for a nine-man ball club, it is necessary that each member of the team do something aside from taking his regular turn at the platter. In other words, the Babe, like all the rest of the Robins, must fill some position in the field. If he is to bat regularly, he must play regularly.

Uncle Robbie, the robust pilot of the Brooklyn club, likes the Babe. He enjoys watching Herman go up there and sock the apple. But it has been a problem for the manager to find a spot in the field where the Babe can be put—a place where he won't be given a chance to boot away too many ball games. Robbie tried the lanky kid at the initial corner, but this didn't work out any too well. A first sacker has lots of opportunity to put runners out, but when a first sacker starts miffing chows, the home fans are likely to start howling. So Herman was put out in the garden, and even here he isn't the best outfielder in the league by any stretch of the imagination.

The Babe has his good afternoons and his bad afternoons. Some days he performs like a second Ty Cobb, and other days he is simply terrible. When a bunch of fans get to gabbing they only remember the bad afternoons. They seldom recall any sweet plays that a ball player may make. When they start discussing the next fellow's.

Which brings up the subject of whether hitting strength is more valuable to a club than fielding strength. Of course, the ideal combination is to have a hundred percent of each, but a case like Herman calls for an argument. Goslin, of the Senators, could scarcely return a ball from the outfield last year because of an injury, but he was carried along all summer because of his hitting. Which is the most valuable asset to a club—hitting or fielding? Your guess is probably as good as mine. When they start discussing the next fellow's.

...in the ring it's PUNCH!

...in a cigarette it's TASTE!
